MORAL YOUNG MEN.

The World has Need of Such Says Rev. Martin Buck.

PRACTICAL ADDRESS AT Y.M.C.A.

YESTERDAY AFTERNOON BY THE NEW PASTOR OF THE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH—THIS IS AN AGE OF YOUNG MEN, AND THEY ARE FOUND AT THE HELM IN ALL WALKS OF LIFE, BUT IT IS ONLY THE CHRISTIAN YOUNG MAN WHO SUCCEEDS—THE CHIEF TEMPTATIONS.

Rev. Martin Buck, the new pastor of the First Baptist church, yesterday afternoon was the speaker at the men's meeting at the Y. M. C. A. There was only a fair attendance, but it was an interesting meeting throughout. Rev. Mr. Buck made a splendid impression. His address was eminently practical, he speaking directly to the point. He talked on the demand of the age for moral young men.

Mr. Buck said it gave him great pleasure to address a gathering of young men, and especially under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. He always liked to talk to men, and regretted that on this Sunday afternoon so many young men should be spending their time in frivolous or sinful pleasures. The Y. M. C. A. stood for the development of manhood, and it was doing a great work. The call of the times is for men, real men, not a certain class of bipeds, but manly men.

The speaker took occasion to score dudes, and a class of young men who speak irreverently of religion and the ministry, thinking it is manly to do so. These types of young men considered religion as not harmonious with the times. The speaker was impressed with the fact that this is the young man's era. The young man is at the helm in nearly every branch of business; it is true of the ministry, the professions and all callings. The young man is the forefront, he is in the public eye. He is a subject of profound interest to society at large. An instance of the young man's taking hold was given in the University of Chicago, where the president and about all the professors are men comparatively young in years.

The young man can't expect his youth to be the sole attribute for his success. He must be clean, morally. Large corporations see to it that the young men in their employ, holding responsible positions, are clean young men; those who do not frequent the saloon, the brothel, or the gaming house. The demand of to-day is for clean young men. Even the brothel wants young men; it couldn't survive otherwise, and it preserves the clean young man to the drunkard's lot.

Man has a struggle on hand to live a pure life. There are many temptations besetting him. He seems to be born with a nature of an inborn depravity. He finds it hard to resist the beautiful palaces of sin. The attractive saloon or the palatial brothel is made fascinating purposely to allure him, to appeal to his evil nature. There are countless pitfalls and attractions of the devil's number for the young man starting out in life. One delusion that promises a happy life is the acquisition of wealth. The young man is told he will be happy if he can only get lots of money, but he will find money is not happiness. Neither will education bring the true happiness, though this is a day of culture. The young man succeeds who hearkens to the voice of his Maker and grasps his opportunities.

Rev. Mr. Buck traced the failure of young men to succeed in life to their heedlessness. They don't stop to consider. He gave several practical illustrations. One in particular was that of a young man who works in a mill for some months, then assists a carpenter rather aimlessly; then before the year is out gets employment at something else. Such a young man without a definite purpose must fail. He can't drift from one trade to another very long for ultimately he will be a "jack of all trades and master of none." If men would stop and think they would see their errors.

Referring to the urgent need for clean young men, Mr. Buck instanced the downfall of Parnell, the great Irish leader, a few years ago. He was his country's idol, until he became intimate with a woman not his wife. A similar drop was experienced in Kentucky more recently, and Breckinridge's failure after failure in politics afterward resulted from the unclean chapter in his life. In concluding his discourse Mr. Buck urged his hearers to lead pure lives, and stand out boldly for Christianity.

THE FUTURE JUDGMENT.

Rev. Dr. Sooy preached a strong sermon last night at Fourth Street church, on "The Future Judgment." The sermon, which was in line with the recent evangelistic services, was intended to show that after the life is ended the reckoning is to come. It was an able effort, and was closely followed by a large congregation.

A QUAKER MEETING.

A large congregation gathered yesterday afternoon in St. Luke's P. E. church, on the island, to hear an address by Jacob Maule, one of the best known Quakers in Eastern Ohio, who conducts a store at Colerain on the strict principles for which the sect are especially noted.

NOW IN JAIL.

Young Newman, Who Stole Money From His Friend.

Young William Newmann, of Twenty-fourth street, had a rapid experience with criminal law in a short space of time. Last night he stole $15 from his friend, J. W. O'Brien, at the latter's boarding house, in the North End. About midnight he was captured by Officer Devinney, and before 1 o'clock this morning Squire Greer sentenced him to $10 and costs or thirty days. He is now in jail, not having money for his fine.

Newman last night called at O'Brien's room. O'Brien wasn't in, but $15 belonging to him was. The money was discovered by Newman, and he soon made his way down town. The police were notified, and Devinney soon had him. Upon the young man's person $12 were found, which Newman handed over, but he had got rid of the difference in riotous living, while there was time to do it.

MARRIED IN BRIDGEPORT.

Mr. Charles Benz, of the North Wheeling, and Miss Dora Klepper, of South Wheeling, drove over to Bridgeport yesterday afternoon, and were married in the German Lutheran church, by the pastor, Rev. Vaas, immediately after the services of the Sabbath school. The young people stole a march on their friends.

DIRECTORS ELECTED.

Corporations Holding Their Annual Meetings of Stockholders.

The annual meeting of the Bellaire Steel Company, Saturday afternoon, was a very encouraging one to the stockholders. The old board of directors was re-elected, without opposition, as follows: J. R. McCortney, Earl W. Oglebay, Charles W. Brockunier, James Wilson, A. B. Carter, J. A. Gallaher and Fred Seabright. The capital stock of this company is $750,000; its assets run about $2,000,000, and its liabilities including the capital stock, are about $500,000 less. These figures are not given as definite, except as to the amount of capital stock. The plant has been running in good shape, and the past week was the greatest in its history. In one day the exact product was 698 tons, and 800 tons per day is confidently looked for in a short time. This will be fully up to the highest anticipations for the new plant. There are over 500 persons in the pay of this company.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Wheeling Railway Company was held Saturday afternoon, and the following board of directors was elected: T. H. Conderman, A. M. Jolly, B. W. Peterson, H. Clark Ford, L. F. Stifel, J. J. Holloway, W. E. Stone, W. W. Hazzard and E. W. Moore. The board organized by electing T. H. Conderman, president, and W. A. Shirley, secretary and treasurer. There was not a quorum present of the stockholders of the Citizens' company, consequently the old board holds over, the vacancy caused by the death of P. B. Dobbins yet unfilled.

The report for the year showed that the Wheeling Railway Company had prospered, and there are indications of a much larger business this year. The company contemplates many improvements, chief of which will be increased power service. The city line of the Wheeling & Elm Grove is now supplied by the Wheeling company, which will continue to do so for some time, hence an increase of power is necessary. Work on this project will hardly begin before April.

The Belle Isle park scheme will be pushed by the company this week, a conference with the owners of the property being on the programme. Prospects are bright for success, and Secretary Shirley yesterday said that the outlook for Belle Isle park becoming a reality in a short time was brighter now than ever.
